COMMUNITY ENGAGED TEACHING ACTIVITIES

CCJ 4810 Trauma-Responsive Justice - Instructor | Criminology, USF St. Petersburg (2025)

Partner(s): St. Petersburg Police Department (Chief Anthony Holloway; Command Staff); Pinellas County Sheriffs Office; Pinellas County Courthouse; Metropolitan Ministries; Federal Bureau of Prisons; Florida DOC (male & female facilities)

Scope: 30 students; co-designed modules; multi-site field experiences and practitioner panels

Activities: Co-designed sessions with SPPD; guest speakers (officers, victims, practitioners); site visits to SPPD HQ and SWAT facility; courthouse observation; community services tour (Metropolitan Ministries); correctional facility visits (FBOP; FL DOC men's & women's prisons); structured interviews; practitioner feedback on student Trauma-Responsive Harm-Reduction Model poster presentations; Q&A with Chief Holloway; recruitment touchpoints with SPPD.

Frameworks Applied: SAMHSA Trauma-Informed Care (TIC) principles; harm-reduction approaches; vicarious-trauma supports (briefing/debriefing, reflection prompts).

Outcomes (Community): Practitioner feedback integrated into student models; departments identified recruitment prospects; community partners engaged in dialogue on trauma-responsive practice.

Outcomes (Student Learning): Demonstrated gains in trauma literacy, applied policy/design thinking, ethical reasoning, and professional communication (assessed via poster rubric, partner feedback, and pre/post reflections).

Artifacts/Products: Syllabus; interview and reflection guides; poster assignment brief and rubric; partner feedback forms; session agendas (Q&A, panels, site visits).

CCJ 4930 Critical Issues in Policing - Instructor | Criminology, USF St. Petersburg (2022-2025)

Partner(s): St. Petersburg Police Department (Chief Anthony Holloway; command staff)

Scope: 40–45 students/term; multi-event collaboration (forum, policy feedback, ride-alongs, ops presentations)

Activities: Organized a mental health forum with Chief Holloway and command staff; brought in officers to critique student policy proposals; arranged student ride-alongs; hosted briefings on departmental operations.

Outcomes (Community): Co-created dialogue on officer wellness and community mental-health response; practitioner feedback integrated into student policy recommendations.

Outcomes (Student Learning): Documented gains in applied policy analysis, professional communication, and civic engagement via reflection rubrics and debriefs.

Artifacts/Products: Forum agenda, student policy briefs, feedback memos, ride-along reflection prompts.

Related Media/Integration: Co-created The BEAT podcast (14 episodes with SPPD officers & community partners) and embedded episode-reaction videos as an assignment to connect course concepts to lived practice.

CCJ 4933 Trauma and Crime – Instructor | Criminology, USF St. Petersburg (2023–2025)

Partner(s): St. Petersburg Police Department (Chief Holloway; officers/units)

Scope: 30–40 students/term; tours; guest speakers; ride-alongs; podcast integration

Activities: Developed Justice Talks podcast (14 episodes) featuring Chief Holloway and SPPD officers; led tours of SPPD HQ and the SWAT facility; coordinated ride-alongs; hosted officer guest speakers; facilitated practitioner feedback on student trauma-responsive policing and harm-reduction proposals.

Outcomes (Community): Practitioner insights shaped student proposals; officers reported value in student-generated harm-reduction ideas for future training scenarios.

Outcomes (Student Learning): Increases in trauma literacy, ethical reasoning, and practice-ready communication (pre/post reflections; proposal scoring).

Artifacts/Products: Podcast episodes; proposal templates; partner feedback forms; tour/ride-along reflection prompts.

CCJ 3024 Survey of the Criminal Justice System – Instructor | Criminology, USF St. Petersburg (2023–2025)

Partner(s): St. Petersburg Police Department (Recruiting/Training; Patrol)

Scope: 300 total students; multi-modal applied learning

Activities: Officers presented on hiring requirements and organizational structure; ran a mock crime scene; joined panel discussions; offered ride-along opportunities.

Outcomes (Community): Created a recruitment and public-education touchpoint; strengthened pipeline awareness for CJ careers.

Outcomes (Student Learning): Improved understanding of CJ system roles/processes; applied observation skills during the mock crime scene and ride-alongs.

Artifacts/Products: Mock crime scene brief, panel Q&A guide, hiring/structure handout, reflection worksheets.

CCJ 3026 Crime and Social Justice - The Justice Project- Instructor | Criminology, USF St. Petersburg (2022–2026)

Partner(s): St. Petersburg Police Department; City leaders (Mayor's Office; City Attorney's Office)

Scope: 300 total students; multi-event public engagement + documentary production

Activities: Organized a homelessness forum with SPPD participation; hosted a follow-up roundtable with city leaders; coordinated officer class visits on homelessness and policing; supported a student-produced documentary, hosted 6 different consciousness raising activities from camp-ins to providing meals.

Global Impact: I partnered with the following Universities: University of Ibadan, Niger Delta University, Benue State University, Evangel University, and Obakinbiyi Model School 2. Students participated in a Conversation Partners group consisting of students from across the 5 universities to engage in dialogue centered on social change, social issues, and political mobilization. Students completed reflection entries and developed a social change project in their community.

Outcomes (Community): Public dialogue on homelessness; cross-sector problem-solving; documentary used to amplify community perspectives.

Outcomes (Student Learning): Growth in civic identity, collaborative problem-solving, and evidence-informed advocacy (forum/roundtable deliverables; documentary rubric).

Artifacts/Products: Forum/roundtable agendas and briefs; documentary film and synopsis; officer-visit discussion prompts.
